MEHITABLE LEACH

No. 180.

HOME AT MERRIMACK, HILLSBORO COUNTY, N. H.,

Of Mehitable Leach No. 180, b. 1785, wife of Samuel Chesman, where they lived from 1810 to 1828, near Merrimack, ten miles below the city of Manchester, on the Merrimack River.

HISTORICAL RECORDS OF THE LEACH FAMILY, TAKEN FROM PUBLIC AND PRIVATE RECORDS.

The first item below is from Josiah Granville Leach, in a printed slip sent to different members of the family:

" Lawrence Leach, who, with his wife Elizabeth and sons John, Richard and Robert, came from England to Salem, Mass., in 1629, where he continued to live until his death in 1662, aged 83 years. From researches made I am led to believe his descendants number over 10,000. One of the most numerous branches of his posterity is that descended from his son Giles Leach, who was born at Salem, Mass., and married Ann Nokes at Weymouth, 1656, and settled in Bridgewater in 1664, where he became entitled by purchase to one fifty-sixth share of the thousands of acres of land bought in 1645 of the old Indian chief Massasoit (King Philip's father) by Miles Standish, Samuel Haskins and Constant Southworth for the use of the fifty-six original proprietors. When Lawrence Leach was about leaving old England for New England, Governor John Winthrop, who had not then come to America, wrote from Gravesend, England, under date of April 17, 1629, a long letter concerning the new colony to Governor John Endicott, of Massachusetts Bay Colony, in which letter he wrote the following: 'We desire you to take notice of one Lawrence Leach, whom we have found a careful and painful man and we doubt not he will continue his diligence.' "

His life in America would seem to have fully justified the confidence reposed in him by Governor Winthrop. It is recorded in one of the histories of Massachusetts, a sketch of him which contains the following: "Lawrence Leach held many important offices and the usefulness of his life gained respect for his memory."

Mr. J. G. Leach says, as a matter of further interest: "Let me state that some years ago my cousin, William Sanford Leach, son of Elbridge Gerry Leach, of Boston, made the English ancestry of our family a matter of research, and it is said he traced the family back to John Leach, surgeon to King Edward the Third. My cousin died in the Union army, and the data he made has been lost."

The coat of arms of the family has upon it three crowns, and the significance of these crowns is said to be this: that on one occasion while the kings of France and Scotland were prisoners of King Edward, the three kings dined at the house of John Leach and, as a token of the incident, on leaving King Edward handed to Leach three crowns. Afterwards, when the king granted him a large landed estate, three crowns were placed on his arms.

The following is the history of the Leach family that descended from Giles Leach (son of Lawrence Leach, of Salem, Mass.), who settled in West Bridgewater before 1665, married Anne Nokes, of Weymouth, 1656. She lived in Deacon Bass' family, Braintree. Mitchel's history of Bridgewater says there was born to them the following named children, and perhaps others:
